

Command Line Applications

command

ls -a function_name(arg1, arg2, arg3)

Command Line

terminal, command prompt, console, CLI

Linux commands

cd : Change Directory

pwd : Present Working Directory

mkdir : Make directory touch : To create a new empty file ls : List directories/ files in pwd rm : Remove file cp : To copy one file to other location find : You can find files using file name grep : We can search across content of file mv : To move file from one location to the other argparse

- in-built module
- we refer documentation from <https://docs.python.org/3/library/argparse.html#module-argparse>
- `argparse.ArgumentParser` (<https://docs.python.org/3/library/argparse.html#argparse.ArgumentParser>)
- `parser.add_argument` https://docs.python.org/3/library/argparse.html#argparse.ArgumentParser.add_argument

